

LOBBY PROBERS UNCOVER CITIES SERVICE SALES

Subpoena Records Of Long Distance
Phone Calls

By Preston L. Grover
Associated Press Staff Writer
Washington, March 6.—(AP)—The senate lobby committee was disclosed tonight to have followed up its mass seizure of private telegrams by a widespread subpoenaing of records of long distance telephone calls.

Authoritative word of this action preceded briefly a radio speech by J. P. Shouse, president of the American Liberty League, in which he charged the committee's seizures furnished an "example of governmental terrorism."

A day long session of the lobby committee earlier had brought out testimony that Henry L. Doherty, dominant figure in Cities Service Corporation, sold out much of his interest several months before the financial collapse in 1929 and a few weeks later bought himself back into control at a profit of $17,700,000.

The first few of the seized records of telephone conversations actually paved a part in today's questioning of utility company witnesses about the drive they conducted last summer against enactment of the Wheeler-Rayburn Utility Holding company control bill.

A source close to the committee disclosed they had been requisitioned wherever they could be used to direct questioning or to disclose new evidence of lobbying.

In his radio speech, replying to criticism of the league by Chairman Black (D. Ala.), Shouse urged his listeners to "join with us in a mammoth petition of protest against this monstrous invasion of our fundamental rights which has been perpetrated by the present administration at Washington."

Earlier, the lobby committee had heard not only testimony about Doherty's activities, but also a number of other unusual statements.

Vagrants Forced To Clean Streets

Hot Springs, Ark., March 6.—(AP)—More than a half dozen men convicted of vagrancy in municipal court today swept the downtown streets with brooms and chains on their legs as Mayor Leo P. McLaughlin pushed a drive against transients he described as "touts."

Alleged vagrants sent to the streets with brooms were given sentences of 30 days yesterday—the exact length of the current spring race meeting at Oaklawn Park.

"I am getting excellent results," said the mayor. "When the afternoon train left, it carried quite a delegation of the light-fingered gentry and touts who, seeing their colleagues decorated with ball and chain and using brooms on the city's streets, decided there were more healthy spots than Hot Springs in which to ply their activities."

Chicago, March 6.—(AP)—William Bloom, 18, (1722A South Broadway) St. Louis, who said he was at liberty on bond awaiting trial in his home city March 9 on a larceny charge, won't be able to appear.

Judge J. M. Braude in boys' court today sent Bloom to jail for 60 days on a charge of stealing 37 neckties from a downtown (Sears, Roebuck and company) store yesterday.

Judge Braude asked that St. Louis authorities be notified that Bloom will be unable to keep his date.

Republicans To Organize Large Campaign Army

Will Enlist Two Men For Every Twenty Voters
In Midwest

Chicago, March 6.—(AP)—Enlistment of the biggest campaign army in Republican history—two men for every twenty voters—was started tonight by party generals in the midwest to take the field against President Roosevelt in November.

Every opponent of the New Deal, Republican or Democrat, was offered a place in the vast organization named the "Republican Volunteers." Intended to co-ordinate the work of all anti-Roosevelt groups, the "Volunteer" plan was adopted formally by committee men and committeewomen from 15 central states for the purpose of "so manning the polls that x x x we shall make certain that those who are opposed to the New Deal properly cast their votes."

To attain this end, the plan called for a state, county and precinct set-up so complex that two persons be assigned to supervise "registration and voting" of every twenty electors. The "Volunteers" would operate under the national state and county Republican committees while acting in a liaison capacity between the party organization and the Young Republicans, the Republican women's groups and "sundry clubs."

As proposed by State Senator J. Kenneth Bradley, of Westport, Conn., and adopted on motion of Don C. Irwin, of Frankfort, Ind., the plan created an organization built on county units.

Each unit will be directed by a committee comprised of one representative of the women, one representative of the Young Republicans, one representative of "Republicans generally" and the county chairman as ex-officio member.

Chicago, March 6.—(AP)—Fred Bartholomae, 32, whom Sheriff Lee A. Aund of Stephenson county named as a participant in the Kent, Ill., State-sonit robbery on Sept. 26, 1932, was under arrest here tonight because a fellow worker recognized his picture in a detective story magazine.

Detectives Edward Dooley and Donald Cossley arrested Bartholomae while he slept in a lodging house.

Dooley said Bartholomae, who formerly lived in suburban Berwyn, confessed complicity in the holdup.

Sheriff Aund declared Bartholomae was arrested on a tip supplied by a Chicago man, who claimed he had once worked with him and knew where he was living. The sheriff declined to reveal the name of his informant. He said he sent the information to the detective bureau here, and Bartholomae's arrest followed.

In his letter to the sheriff the informer said he recognized Bartholomae's picture in a detective magazine about a year ago, investigated his whereabouts and learned he was living in a lodging house at 635 Belmont avenue.

Deputy Sheriff Harry Yoe of Stephenson county was enroute to Chicago tonight to take Bartholomae into custody.

Bartholomae, Sheriff Aund said, was allegedly one of three men who entered the Kent bank threatened Mrs. Isabelle Wheeler, assistant cashier, with a pistol, and fled with $200.

ILLINOIS PLAN IS APPROVED BY FARMERS

Proposal Is Offered By Earl C. Smith Of Detroit, Ill.

Chicago, March 6.—(AP)—An important step toward implementing the new soil conservation-subsidy farm program in the corn belt was taken today with committee approval for the "Illinois plan" of benefit payments.

The benefit payment committee of the regional conference of farmers from 12 midwestern states voted 12 to 4 for the "Illinois" plan although the "Ohio" plan won support from Kansas, Indiana, and Missouri delegations.

Under the proposal which got the committee's recommendation, the acreage to be converted to grasses or legumes—soil rebuilding crops—would be computed for each county. Payments would be made farmers who increased their acreage of the desired crops from the soil improvement account. Farmers already raising more than the county average of such crops would also receive payments.

Six other committees considering various aspects of the general program, announced here yesterday and at Memphis, Tenn., in a statement from Secretary Wallace labored thru the day and planned to hold night sessions. They will report Saturday to the full regional gathering, which is scheduled to be addressed by Wallace.

With duties of mapping out just now how the $470,000,000 program is to be worked out for the midwest area, the conference found its main problem in which the benefits were to be arranged.

Regret at the setback to the "Ohio" plan termed "too technical" for immediate adoption by its opponents, was expressed by several delegates. The plan would have fixed plus or minus values for each crop and aimed at a scientific basis for benefit payments to individual farmers on the item of soil improvement.

The "Illinois" proposal was offered by Earl C. Smith, president of the Illinois Agricultural Association.

General approval for the broad outlines of the new federal plan continued to be voiced by delegates to the conference.

Postponement In Day Murder Case Will Be Sought

Trial Of Alleged Razor Slayer Will Open
Monday

Joliet, Ill., March 6.—(AP)—Attorneys representing James Day, 21 year old convict under indictment for the razor-slaying of Richard Loeb during a fight at Stateville prison last Jan. 28, said today a postponement would be sought when the case is called for trial here Monday.

Emmett Byrne and Harold Levy, Chicago attorneys, said they would ask that the trial be set for the latter part of this month to allow them more time in which to prepare a defense for the confessed slayer. Loeb, 30 year old Chicago "thrill" slayer, was serving a life term, plus 99 years, for the 1924 murder of little Bobby Franks.

Members of Gov. Horner's citizens' committee, appointed to conduct a state-wide investigation of Illinois penal conditions as a result of the Loeb killing, will convene at Chester, Ill., Tuesday to investigate conditions at the Southern Illinois prison.

The commission concluded its investigation of the two prisons here last Wednesday.

Chicago, March 6.—(AP)—Their request for suspension of French marriage laws officially approved, Douglas Fairbanks Sr. and Lady Ashley set tomorrow noon for their wedding.

The last legal obstacle to the marriage was removed late today when the state's attorney delivered the papers which the actor has sought from numerous French officials since his arrival here several days ago from the United States.

The suspension, however, came too late for a wedding today and the couple found the doors of city hall closed when Fairbanks' attorney delivered the final notification.

Miss Susanne Blum, attorney for the actor and secretary to Joseph Paul-Boncour, minister of state without portfolio, obtained the permission which waived the 30-day residence period and the 11-day publication of banns required by French law.

Before the permission was granted, however, Lady Ashley sent to London for her birth certificate and the statement of her divorce from Lord Ashley in 1934. The documents were flown to Paris, quickly translated into French and the approval followed.

Chicago, March 6.—(AP)—A jury which deliberated for three hours tonight acquitted four Union county sheriffs' deputies of manslaughter charges in the fatal shooting of Mrs. Sophie Crempa during a raid on her South Plains farm home.

Acquitted were Deputies Charles E. Remley and three brothers, Edward, Richard, and Vincent Carolan.

Mrs. Crempa was slain last Sept. 26 when deputies went to her home to arrest her husband, John, for contempt of court in continued defiance of an order restraining him from interfering with power lines crossing his land.

The prosecution charged that Mrs. Crempa was shot down without provocation and the defense contended that she and her husband climaxed a lengthy feud with law enforcement officers by firing on the deputies.

Crempa, who for eight years was unreconciled to high tension lines strung across his property without court sanction, testified he and his wife were unarmed when the deputies drove them from their home with tear gas and opened fire.

Each of the deputies told the jury that Mr. and Mrs. Crempa started the shooting.

Urbana, Ill., March 6.—(AP)—Jay C. Hackleman, University of Illinois crop expert told farm specialists of state institutions today that farmers were confronted with the most serious shortage since 1918.

Speaking at the closing session of the two day short course at the University of Illinois College of Agriculture, Hackleman said there was an increasing demand for soybean seed as a result of the corn scarcity.

"Seed of the various clovers is generally plentiful," he declared, "and an ample supply of seed oats will be available in most communities of the state."

The 100 farm specialists met here to discuss methods of decreasing the rising cost of feeding inmates and patients of state institutions.

Chicago, March 6.—(AP)—Blackwell Okla., March 6.—(AP)—Mrs. John Harvey, 87, who celebrated her 68th wedding anniversary with her 93 year old husband last November, died here today.

Mr. and Mrs. Harper were reared on adjoining farms near Lincoln, Ill. They came here in 1908.

Phoenix, Ariz., March 6.—(AP)—A woman dashed into a building here today and asked to use the telephone.

"My car's on fire and I want to call the fire department," she shouted.

The building she had entered was the Central fire station.

Chicago, March 6.—(AP)—Vexed over being transferred to night shifts, a group of miners quit work at the Jones and Laughlin steel company's Vesta mine number four, throwing 1,350 idle.

N. Y. SERVICE STRIKERS CLAIM MAJOR VICTORY

Prudence Company
Reached Agreement
With Employees

New York, March 6.—(AP)—Leaders of New York's building service strike claimed a major victory tonight with the signing of a truce between the union and the Prudence company covering 3,500 workers in 45 large apartment and business buildings.

The agreement, as announced at strike headquarters, carries a blanket wage increase of $2 a week and a "preferential shop" clause giving union members precedence when vacancies are filled.

At the same time the union carried its six day old strike into 62 Manhattan hotels.

Claims that 8,000 elevator operators, chambermaids, housemen and other employees had walked out during the day were sharply disputed by hotel managements. In almost every case the operators contended there was little or no disruption of the service.

Among the hotels placed in the strike column at union headquarters were such widely known establishments as the McAlpin, Beekman Towers, Avaro, Martinique, Mayfair, Barboz-Plaza, and others.

Simultaneously it was announced that the 36 story Grand Central building near Grand Central terminal had averted a threatened strike by reaching a "gentlemen's agreement" granting weekly increase of $2. Negotiations on other points await the arrival from Havana of Henry Chanin, head of the operating company.

Signing of the Prudence company contract, in the presence of Mayor F. H. LaGuardia, marked the first major group defection from the real estate ranks, which have held out desperately against the closed shop issue.

The union claims to have negotiated numerous independent agreements with individual owners.

Chicago, March 6.—(AP)—The Illinois Northern Utilities Company, Dixon, Ill., today reported 1935 net income of $620,249, an increase of $61,257 compared with 1934.

This was equivalent to $13.24 per share on the 10 percent preferred stock compared with $11.94 in 1934, and $43.40 per share on the 7 1/2 percent preferred compared with $35.37 last year.

Gross earnings totaled $3,199,355, an increase of 4.8 percent over operating expenses, exclusive of depreciation and taxes, increased $43,078 to $1,218,858.

Chicago, March 6.—(AP)—An Illinois Municipal League committee, meeting here today, completed plans for the establishment of a statewide training school for municipal police.

A. D. McLarty, Springfield, secretary of the league, announced that the instructors would be chosen from the Chicago and St. Louis police departments, the University of Illinois, Northwestern University and the U. S. Department of Justice.

McLarty said tentative plans called for establishment of a central training school with a faculty of instructors scientifically trained in police administration.

Mayor Frank P. Meyer, Danville, presided at today's meeting. The committee will meet again next month to outline the curriculum. The subjects to study will include traffic control, first aid, contacts with the public, court procedure, crime prevention, gambling and vice, degenerates, laws or arrest and civics.

Among those present at the meeting were Cal G. Tyler, Dixon, commissioner of public health and safety; A. M. Ray, Bloomington alderman; Prof. A. F. Dodge of the University of Illinois; Ray Cook, Danville, commissioner of public health and safety; Police Chief William O. Freeman of suburban Evanston and Police Sergeant Karl P. Hartneck of suburban Forest Park.

Chicago, March 6.—(AP)—James Sullivan called Sam Longo into court today and accused him of being a hit-and-run driver.

Longo denied the charge, pulled a package from his pocket and told the judge:

"Your honor, this will prove I did not hit and run."

While heads craned the package was opened and there reposed a set of false teeth.

Longo explained he picked them up when he stopped after his auto struck Sullivan.

Sullivan, elated at finding the lost article, smilingly intimated he would drop the case.

South Dakota Prison Break Results in Three Deaths; Two Others Are Wounded

Sioux Falls, S. D., March 6.—(AP)—A hitch-hiking Kansas gunman who sought to release his brother from the penitentiary brought death to three persons and wounds to two others here today in one of the most sensational prison breaks in the history of the state.

Warden Eugene Reiley, 72, and Phil Ray, St. Paul desperado serving 30 years for bank robbery, were killed in a running gun fight with a posse. Berlan Meisel of Webster, S. D., died in a hospital early tonight from wounds suffered when he and his fiancée, Miss Freda Rausch, also of Webster, were ordered from their car by the fleeing convicts.

Miss Rausch was slightly wounded. Claude Carrier, 18-year-old Kansas who engineered the escape, was critically wounded in the chase and George Collins, a deputy sheriff, also suffered gunshot wounds.

Meisel was shot over the heart and Miss Rausch wounded in the face when the gunmen ordered them from their car and took the machine in a wild dash for freedom.

Reiley, warden at the prison since August 1, 1933, may have been a victim of officers' guns. He was found shot in the back in the rear seat of the gunmen's car and died enroute to a hospital.

The sensational attempt at prison delivery came with startling suddenness shortly after 2:30 this afternoon. Less than an hour later Ray and Reiley were dead and Claude Carrier and his brother Harold, were back inside the prison walls. The younger Carrier was shot in the head and shoulder but his brother was uninjured.

Blood-soaked and weak, Claude Carrier, who said he hitch-hiked here from Kansas City, gave police a vivid account of the prison break in which he and his brother held up a dozen guards and trustees, released Ray and kidnapped Reiley as hostage. They stole three automobiles in their brief mad dash for freedom which ended in a hail of lead only five miles from the penitentiary.

"The break was my own idea. I figured it out myself," the lanky Carrier told police.

"I stuck two gas under my belt and went up to ask the warden if I could see my brother," Carrier said. "I talked with my brother for about ten minutes and told him what the plan was. He said 'Okay' and when I got through talking I pulled out a gun and covered the guy nearest me. I gave the other gun to my brother."

Claude told how Harold then went into a cell block to release Ray before the trio took the turnkey's rings and raided the arsenal, taking a machine gun and some rifles. Seizing the warden the gunmen stole a car from two women in front of the prison and fled northward.

"We wanted to get to a side road as soon as possible," Carrier said, "so we turned off, but the warden said we would stand a better chance of getting away if we went back to the main road."

"So Phil turned back and we went on north. We came on the officers and their first blast hit me. I don't remember what happened after that."

Chicago, March 6.—(AP)—Saline county's "protest holiday" called by the Progressive Miners of America because a colliery was reopened here with workers from a rival union, ended late today without attaining its objective.

More than 3,000 workers in nine Progressive manned mines in this center of bitter mine strife in past years were ordered to return to work. They have been idle for two days and this morning peacefully picketed Peabody No. 43 here at which work began Monday with United Mine Workers of America employed.

The Peabody company made no concessions.

The Twin Peaks

"Rising through the mists of the morning after may be seen the grim twin peaks of inflation and crushing taxation." This rather picturesque statement was made recently by Senator Dickinson of Iowa in an attack on the New Deal. The "morning after" to which he referred is the period of disillusionment now setting in as a sequence to the era of extravagant spending, in which the administration has poured fourteen billions into its pump-priming experiments, only to find ten million people still clamoring for work.

The "twin peaks" are unpleasant to contemplate, but the scattering of the mist leaves them clear and distinct. The nation will apparently have to choose between them, or accept both as realities and try to steer a middle course. If business is given its freedom from government bondage, if private capital is allowed to go to work in industry without too many restrictions, if there is no more tinkering with the dollar, perhaps this middle course can be taken and the country will find its way to recovery between the menacing peaks.

There will of course be heavy taxes, but they should not be crushing. It is possible in a new era of prosperity to reduce the national debt, as it was cut in the years following the war. Whoever takes over the reins of government after the November elections should seek and follow a policy that will carry the country safely out of its financial difficulties. Only a long and peaceful era of prosperity can turn the trick. Through it we may yet escape the twin peaks.

The New York Strike

The strike of building service workers in New York is assuming dangerous proportions. It now amounts to a "strike against the public safety," against which Calvin Coolidge warned Boston police during their famous walkout while he was Governor of Massachusetts. The spread of the strike and the machine-like working of its organization give evidence that powerful interests are back of the movement, and that they are aiming at more than a mere victory for a few thousand elevator operators. Radical groups in this country have been known to "pull" such walkouts, and it might be well for New York authorities to look behind the scenes in this particular instance.

The strike emphasizes the extremely dependent life of city dwellers. Thousands of New Yorkers work and live high above the streets. They must have elevators to get up and down because in such lofty buildings stair-climbing is next to impossible. People with weak hearts are menaced by this strike. The walkout of engineers and firemen in great buildings has turned otherwise comfortable quarters into chilly vaults. It is a serious responsibility for any group to paralyze the life of a great city, no matter how important the issues at stake.

Low rentals are said to be responsible for the situation. New York, like many another metropolitan center, overbuilt during the boom days. When the depression came, tenants in the lofty structures clamored for lower rents. Building owners and agents found themselves hard-pressed. Hundreds of buildings are now in the hands of bondholders' committees, and they are paying only enough to meet taxes and maintenance, with the bondholders left to hold the bag, while receivers and committees draw fat salaries.

The tenants refused to have their rents raised, and competition has been keen. Wages of service employees were slashed to the bone, and labor took the rap. Even so the buildings do not pay. The only solution appears to be higher rentals, as the costs of living and of building maintenance rise. Meanwhile bondholders would also like to have something, if it is only a letter saying that interest could be paid if there was not so much back taxes.

The Common Touch

Kipling long ago made famous one measure of a man in that line, "if you can walk with kings—nor lose the common touch." And today we have the splendid example of a king himself who has not lost the common touch.

Speaking to the world for the first time since he ascended the throne, young Edward VIII emphasized the sort of monarchy he wants for the British Empire. It stirs a refreshing international and democratic note. Said the new king:

"I am better known to most of you as the Prince of Wales, as the man who during the war and since has had the opportunity of getting to know the people of nearly every country of the world under all conditions and circumstances. And although I now speak to you as the king, I am still the same man who has had the experience, and whose constant effort will be to continue to promote the well-being of his fellow men."

Certainly this attitude promises much for the British Empire and for the world.

Chief of Police Says It's Up to You to Play Safe

Officers Can Answer Calls But It May Be Too Late: Gives Safety Advice

Journal and Courier Safety Campaign Dept.
Dear Sirs:
Examination of causes of accidents discloses that the police department, unless it has an unlimited number of men to put on duty throughout the city all hours of the day and night, is not in a position to prevent them. It quickly responds to calls AFTER accidents, but then it is too late to prevent loss of life, loss of time, and loss of money.

I am glad to take this opportunity to endorse the Jacksonville Journal and Courier "Safety-Or Else" campaign to reduce traffic accidents. It is a move in the right direction, and any cooperation the police can give in this connection will be readily forthcoming. People do not want a policeman standing on every corner to see that they do not park illegally, and to see that they are operating their machines safely, but unless something is done to stop the rising losses in life and property, some action, either through a driver's license law which will deprive persons who are involved in accidents from operating their machines, or increased surveillance and attendant court costs, will have to be taken.

The majority of the people want safety on the streets and highways. There are only a few who want to take chances by operating their machines at speeds greater than deemed safe by organizations which have made a study of traffic problems. The police department is ready to act against persons who fail to observe the laws. The department wishes it could make arrests when violations of good judgment cause accidents, in order to bring home the lesson of caution in automobile operation. A survey here has shown that except in rare instances, drivers will have to wait less than a minute to get on a boulevard after making a stop. There are few instances where the minute wait will cause anyone loss of money, and often the minute wait will save more money than could be obtained through violating the rules of safe driving.

Our traffic officer now is working on traffic violations. I also would like to take this opportunity to urge pedestrians to cross streets only at crossings. They can help mightily in preventing accidents by observing this simple safety rule. The department has instructions to rigidly enforce all traffic ordinances.

Chief of Police.

Barking Dog Brings Rescue for Woman Who Falls Into Well

"Bob," a Fox Terrier, Saves Mrs. Roy Davenport by Sounding Alarm

The persistent barking of "Bob," fox terrier owned by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Davenport of Orleans, is probably responsible for the saving of the life of Mrs. Davenport Thursday when she fell in a well at her home.

Mrs. Davenport had gone to the well to pump some water. She stepped on a weak part of the well platform, which gave way, precipitating her into the water eleven feet below. The well is 22 feet deep.

Mrs. Davenport seized the pump pipe, and although drenched by the icy water, held on and called for help. The dog was nearby and at once perceived his mistress was in distress. He had been taught to obey commands. She called to the dog, telling him to get her husband. He set up an excited barking. He would run a short distance from the well and then return.

Mr. Davenport and other members of the family were butchering hogs at the home of William Davenport, not far away. They heard the barking of the dog, which became so insistent that something was wrong. He also heard Mrs. Davenport's cries as he approached the house and signaled to the others to come.

Mrs. Davenport was rescued from the well after being in the water nearly half an hour. She was chilled and suffering from exposure and exhaustion, but was otherwise unharmed.

The fact that the dog had been taught to obey commands to get various objects enabled her to make him understand that he was to summon her husband to her assistance. His sharp insistent barking brought help.

E. S. Oxley of Woodson was among those transacting business in the city yesterday.

Plan Kite Flying, Birdhouse Building Contests for City

Mass Meeting of School Children Saturday for Instructions

Community-wide bird house-building and kite-flying contests are being planned as part of the YMCA-WPA recreation program here. A mass meeting of children of the fourth, fifth and sixth grades of the city schools will be held at 10 o'clock this morning at the David Prince gymnasium, at which time Ray Spillman will explain the plans for the contests and will give out instructions for building the birdhouses and kites. There will also be a short musical program and a basketball game. Bird houses must be ready for judging and display by April 15. The awards will be made as soon after as judging is completed. Suitable prizes for the various types of houses and for the kite flying contests will be offered by merchants. Mr. Spillman pointed out yesterday that there are three things essential in birdhouse construction: the proper size of the nest room for the particular variety of bird, the proper height and size of the entrance, and the right ventilation.

Prizes will be offered for the most novel construction, the most unique materials used, etc., but the builder must keep in mind the requirements for the birds he wishes to attract to the house. Full details will be given to the children at the meeting today, along with some interesting bird lore. Mr. Spillman has collected 260 species of land birds that have been found east of the Rocky Mountains will be realized when it is seen that these birds destroy 40,000 bushels of insects each day in Illinois alone. During the nesting season the average bird will make 200 trips a day to the nest to feed its young, and will carry on each trip 20 to 25 small insects.

Plans for the kite-flying contest will be announced from time to time. Prizes will be given for kites of various types and for proficiency in flying. The plans will be announced at the meeting today, and the children will also receive a set of designs for kites. Later in the contests the idea will be promoted in the various grade schools of the city.

OFFICER OF NURSES' ASSOCIATION SPEAKS AT MACMURRAY FRIDAY

Miss Ethel Swope, assistant director of headquarters, American Nurses' Association, was the guest speaker at MacMurray College chapel Friday morning.

"What is it we ask of education?" Miss Swope asked. "That we be more effective in our task, that we appreciate knowledge and beauty, that we know the world and take a part in it. How much nursing has to do with this, for healthy minds and healthy bodies are much better able to appreciate knowledge and beauty and to serve."

Miss Swope went on to point out how important nursing has become as a profession, and how nursing requirements, both educational and cultural, have risen in the last few years. "We of the nursing profession believe there is no greater service than being instrumental in gaining and maintaining healthy bodies and healthy minds," she said.

Wound One, Capture Another in Capital City Theft Attempt

Bullets Fly Near Post Office as Two Men Break Up Robbery Friday

Springfield, Ill.—(AP)—A man who gave his name as Alphonse Del Valley, 42, of Danville was wounded seriously yesterday by a deputy sheriff in an attempted holdup of two men guarding a $40,000 bank shipment. A second man, who was tentatively identified by police as Arlie Tietze, 33, also of Danville, was captured after the shooting affray near the post office.

Del Valley was shot in the hip by Walter H. Hagler, deputy sheriff and guard at the First National Bank, who was following Roeder E. Tietze, paying teller of the bank.

Tietze delivered the large package of cash to the post office while Hagler, who was following him, was shot and wounded. The money was for shipment to the Federal Reserve Bank at Chicago.

The men gave their names to Detective C. W. Jesberg. Del Valley was taken to a hospital, where attendants said his wound was serious because of possible internal complications. Several shots were fired in front of the post office about 10:30 a. m.

Hagler told police the two men accosted them on the street and that Tietze struck him in the jaw while Del Valley grabbed the money from Tietze. The deputy sheriff said he shot at Del Valley, who dropped the package and returned the fire.

Hagler held Tietze during the shooting and Del Valley attempted to escape by jumping into a parked automobile. A bystander, Conrad Noll, Jr., helped Hagler disarm Tietze and guard Del Valley until police arrived.

Conrad Noll mentioned in the above dispatch is well known in Jacksonville, having graduated from Illinois College two years ago. Noll worked at the Illinois School for the Deaf during his student days here, and was a swimming instructor.

Describes Visit to Florida in Winter

Dr. Pontius Speaks Friday At Rotary; Club Endorses Safety Campaign

Dr. M. L. Pontius, who recently returned from a month's vacation trip to Florida, told the members of the Jacksonville Rotary club yesterday many interesting facts about Sarasota, Fla., where he spent the major portion of his time.

While Dr. Pontius escaped the severe weather which prevailed in this city during his absence, he stated that he suffered considerably from the cold in the far south. While the temperature during the day in Sarasota was 85 at nights the mercury often dropped to 35, with no provision made for heating the buildings.

Dr. Pontius told of his visit to the winter quarters of the Ringling-Barnum circus, where he was permitted to see the trainers working with the animals, preparing them for next season's shows.

The speaker also described Venice, "The Ghost City" located near Sarasota. This city built at a cost of $34,000,000 is deserted. The large apartments and business buildings have never been occupied and are slowly being consumed by termites. The failure of the city is attributed first to the failure of the project and secondly, the termites.

The members of the club voted to endorse the Jacksonville Journal and Courier "Safety" campaign.

Members whose birthdays occur in January, February and March were each presented with a rose by Robert W. Woolston in behalf of the club. James Bonnet of Litchfield, was a guest of the club.

LEAVE FOR CHICAGO

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Olds and daughter Rhoda, left yesterday afternoon for Chicago where they will spend the week-end with E. E. Olds and family. They were accompanied by Mrs. Blanch Cully and Miss Leanna Clements of Jacksonville, and Mrs. E. P. Vickery of Springfield, who will visit relatives and friends in and near Chicago.

MAKE NO HEADWAY
Los Angeles, March 6.—(P)—The five-year-old problem of bankruptcy for Vivian and Rosetta Duncan, "Topsy and Eva" on the stage, came before Referee Samuel McNabb again today.
Attorneys for creditors contend the Duncan sisters are not really without funds, but merely hiding assets. Numerous hearings have been held since 1931. Attorney Hiram Casey, representing some creditors, sighed:
"We're just where we started, years ago."

Jerseyville, March 6.—Plugging away from wherever they could get their hands on the ball and hitting the hoop, Grafton knocked the Jerseyville regional tournament into a cocked hat here tonight when they spilled Gillespie, one of the favorites to win the title, with a 33 to 31 score. Jerseyville clinched its place in the sectional tournament by defeating Rockbridge in a free scoring battle 49 to 36.

Led by Britt, who bagged three of his four goals in the last three minutes of play, Grafton left a large crowd astounded with its ability to hit the net. The game was nip and tuck all the way, with first one team taking the lead and then the other. Grafton entered the Jerseyville regional by winning the district title.

Jerseyville had little trouble in tumbling Rockbridge, putting on a furious scoring drive in the third quarter to run up an 11 point lead. They were still scoring faster than Rockbridge at the finish.

New York, March 6.—(P)—Ponderous Primo Carnera, Italy's fistic fury, blasted out a five-round victory tonight over Izzy Gastanaga, wild swinging Spaniard in Madison Square Garden. The huge Italian, scaling 268, was awarded a technical knockout when Referee Arthur Donovan stopped the fight because of the condition of Gastanaga's damaged left eye. The Spaniard scaled 208.

After vainly trying to break down Carnera's cumbersome defense with looping body blows, Gastanaga suffered a jagged cut over the eye in the fourth round. It bled profusely and the Spaniard weathered a heavy storm of blows for the rest of the round before getting hasty treatment in his corner.

Apparently discouraged by this turn of events, Gastanaga made only a few defensive gestures in the fifth round before it became apparent his eye was badly affected. Donovan stepped in to halt the proceedings after 46 seconds had elapsed. The referee said afterward that the Spaniard's eye was damaged as much by the emergency use of adrenalin as it was by the cut. Carnera, although obviously rattled by his opponent's unorthodox style, had a decisive margin on points throughout. There were no knockdowns, however, and the crowd of 9,000 onlookers, including 8,834 cash customers who paid $18.800, continually jeered the ponderous Primo's tactics.

St. Louis, March 6.—(P)—Mrs. Mabel Jenkins, 19, was arrested here today and taken to Vandalia, Ill., for questioning in connection with the abandonment of an infant there February 20.

The baby has been in a Vandalia hospital since it was found on the doorstep of Harold Pope.

Vandalia authorities assert the child is that of Mrs. Jenkins.

Fan Breezes
By Ernest Savage

According to this month's issue of the Illinois Athlete, Fred Johnston, former Illinois College lad who formerly was at West Frankfort, is doing a real job at Argo, his new position.

The Athlete quotes the report of one official as follows: "One of the most remarkable improvements in athletic conditions is that at Argo. The behavior of both players and spectators is exemplary."

Another interesting item comes under the heading "Credit Where Due." The article quotes Roy Clark, of Rankin, as saying:

"In various contacts with coaches I often hear them speak about the referee giving all the breaks to one team or the other.

"This is such a common expression that I have given the matter considerable thought. After many observations I am inclined to believe that there is no foundation for any such accusation. Calling fouls, violations, held balls, etc., is in practically every case a strictly impersonal matter.

"The experienced official reduces himself to an impersonal mechanism. When an infraction of the rules occurs the whistle is automatically and involuntarily blown. It is my belief that the official has no thought of the color of the player's uniform or of the team to which he belongs. The matter of the violation the number of the player and the realization that the whistle must be blown come almost simultaneously. It is reduced to habit and is done by reflex. The official does not give the 'break' to any team. He calls them as they occur."

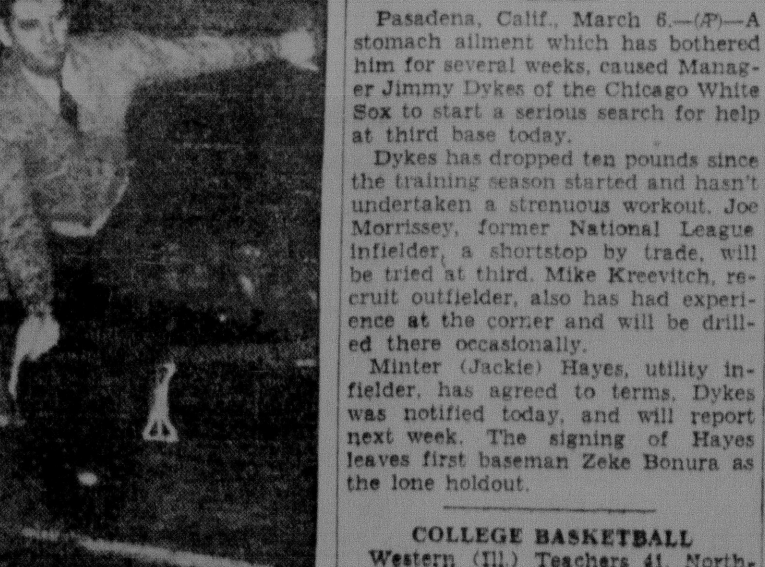

Anyway, everyone is satisfied with the way Eddie Long and Tommy Grimmer are handling the regional tournament. Long has fatigued up a bit since he was here last year, but Grimmer is keeping his syph like figure.

Coach A. J. Lettze had a lot of fun telling about Baker's broken mirror the other night. The little "flea-sized" ball player, however, apparently forgot about the jinx when he got in the game.

Our yarns about early basketball stirred up one historian of Pike county to jot down his early recollections of the sport. Here is his letter, relayed to this desk by Howard Riggs, who did a bit of cashing rather recently in J. H. S. from Russell H. Jester, who played on Griggsville high school's team when it was first organized.

8 p. m.—White Hall vs. Carlinville.
(No consolation game.)

Greenfield, March 6.—Greenfield's battle of the century turned out to be a breeze for White Hall's Maroons as they shot their way into a sectional tournament here tonight by defeating Waverly decisively 40 to 21, after which Carlinville, scared by a sudden Virden uprising in the final quarter, jumped out on the winning side of a 36 to 30 score. Carlinville and White Hall will battle it out for a regional tournament championship with Waverly and Virden meeting for consolation honors.

Handicapped at the start of the second quarter by the loss of Morris, Waverly's meteors became stars at rest as White Hall blasted them to bits with short set-up shots. The Maroons missed enough more shots to run the count much higher, although the same was true of Waverly's Newberry, who barreled a lot of shots, but couldn't make them stick.

Waverly made a battle out of it during the first eight minutes, but Morris was waved out of the game shortly after the second quarter got underway, and White Hall immediately went to work to use their height. Dean Fair, the Maroon high gunner, popped in 20 points, and Harold Wendell added up 10 more before a halt was called. White Hall led 8 to 6 at the end of the first quarter, and 19-10 at the half, and from then on had complete charge of the game.

Carlinville was pressed sorely to get out of trouble in its game with Virden. Virden picked up nine points to open the fourth period before Carlinville scored, leaving the count 33-30 with two minutes to go, but they put on pressure and stopped Virden's rally.

Assassin Fires at Premier

U.S. Official Was in Diplomatic Gallery of Chamber of Deputies as Wild Shooting Started.

DIPLOMATS SCATTER

Belgrade, Yugoslavia —(A P)—An assassin, firing wildly at Premier Milan Stoyadinovich, narrowly missed shooting Charles S. Wilson, United States minister to Yugoslavia, today.

Wilson was sitting in the diplomatic gallery of the chamber of deputies when a deputy of the opposition party suddenly jerked a pistol from his pocket and started firing at the premier.

Other deputies seized him and the first shot plugged into the wall just over the heads of the diplomats. The remaining three shots went into the floor.

Other diplomats in the gallery scattered for cover but Wilson remained in his seat and watched the struggle on the floor below him with a serious expression on his face.

Several other deputies whipped out pistols but none of them fired.

The assassin was Dman Amantovich. He was taken into custody by gendarmes, who led him off the floor. At the time of the shooting, Premier Stoyadinovich was reading a message on next year's budget.

In recent months the opposition parties in Yugoslavia have become increasingly critical of the government and their deputies have walked out of the chamber on several occasions. Today the opposition deputies refused to participate in the chamber session but appeared, instead, in the public galleries from which they kept up a continual heckling of the premier.

The session broke up in confusion but convened again after a short time.

Premier Stoyadinovich reappeared in the chamber and was congratulated by his friends. However, when an opposition deputy also tried to congratulate him on his narrow escape, the hall resounded with catcalls.

Leader in Congress Demands Economy In Relief Measures

President Consults Advisers About Amount That Will Be Needed

Washington—(P)—With debate over relief rising to a crescendo, the Capital today heard a Democrat urge a $1,000,000,000 limit on a forthcoming new appropriation and a Republican demand a nationwide inquiry into charges of political "exploitation of human misery."

President Roosevelt, meantime, consulted his advisers without reaching a final decision as to the amount he will ask for aid to the distressed during the coming fiscal year.

There have been reports that this sum might be $2,000,000,000, more or less. But Chairman Buchanan (D, Tex.) of the house appropriations committee stood pat on his contention that congress should not grant "anything like $2,000,000,000."

"The most I have ever said I would stand for was a billion and a half dollars," he said. "And I have always said it ought not to be over $1,000,000,000."

It was Senator Vandenberg (R, Mich.) who asked the wide investigation of reports that politicians collect campaign funds from workers on relief.

Previously, he had asked Administrator Harry L. Hopkins to look into reports that the Democratic county committee in Indiana county, Pa., was calling on Works Progress Administration employees for funds.

Declaring that he could not be responsible for "dumb politicians" who write letters to WPA people, Hopkins replied.

"The politician who asked for the contributions was told in words of one syllable that our staff was under no obligation to contribute, and that their jobs would be fully protected in case they did not contribute."

OFFER NEW THEORY ABOUT FOUR MISSING

Yuba City, Calif.—(P)—A new theory in the case of four missing Illinois tourists was advanced today by a former cattleman who believed "gangsters" left their bodies in a lava bed near East Vaughn, N. M.

John Mason, 80, who once ran cattle in the lava bed vicinity, told Sheriff Bert Ulfrey he wrote a letter to the East Vaughn postmaster setting out the "solution" of the mystery. The postmaster said the letter was not signed, but Mason replied a page must have been lost, that he wrote a complete letter.

The missing were Mr. and Mrs. George Lorus of East St. Louis, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Heber of DuQuoin, Ill. Several days later they appeared in New Mexico last summer their automobile was found in Dallas.

Miss Flora Hall was shopping in the city yesterday from Alexander.

Mrs. Opal S. Hill Beats Patty Berg

By Paul Mickelson

St. Augustine, Fla., March 6.—(P)—Patty Berg, golf's greatest youngster, fell after a gallant struggle amid the ruins of stymies in America's oldest city today.

Mrs. Opal S. Hill of Kansas City, who taught the 18-year-old Minneapolis girl many of the inside tricks of big-time golf, defeated her one up in the semi-final of the Florida east coast championship.

Joining Mrs. Hill in the 18-hole final to be played tomorrow, was Mrs. Maureen Orcutt crews of Coral Gables, Fla., who played some of the most brilliant golf of her great career to crush Marion Milley of Lexington, Ky., 2 and 1.

With flawless control, Mrs. Crews breezed over the championship St. Augustine course's 6,345 yards in 73 shots—only one over men's par and seven strokes under women's perfect figures. Her putt for men's par on the final hole, which she played out in an attempt to match her medal record of 72, hung stubbornly on the lip of the cup.

Although Mrs. Crews' medal was three shots better than the best ball card of the Hill-Berg match, the galleries watched Opal and Patty fight it out. They were rewarded with a grand battle up to the final putt.

Mrs. Hill won the match on the 15th green where she hauled out her trusty putter and cut around a stymie from 20 feet to sink the ball for a birdie four to break the deadlock and go one up. Thereafter, she refused to break, shooting two pars and a birdie.

Patty captured the first hole with a birdie four, but Mrs. Hill evened it out on the third when Patty started looking, missing the green with her second. The first of the stymies cost Patty the fourth, giving Mrs. Hill the lead. Patty erased that on the long eighth with an effortless birdie four as Mrs. Hill hit her drive too high, wound up in a trap and couldn't get her shots back. They made the turn all even, Patty with a medal of 38 to Mrs. Hill's 39.

Three putts cost Mrs. Hill the tenth and again she was one down, but the stymies started to "rain" after that. Patty lost a chance to win both the 11th and 12th because of stymies and lost the 13th when Mrs. Hill stopped her with another dead one.

Both Mrs. Hill and Patty had medals of 78, or two under women's par. Mrs. Hill's rounds were 38-40; Mrs. Hill's 39-39.

Tydings Rallies to "New Deal"; G.O.P. Leaders are Active

Developments in Maryland Watched as Democrats Appeal for Harmony

Washington.—(P)—Moves for Democratic unity in Maryland and a decision by midwest Republicans to aim their sharpest darts directly at President Roosevelt instead of at subordinated New Dealers attracted political interest today.

Senator Tydings, Maryland Democrat who at times has expressed distaste for New Deal policies, nevertheless called for support for President Roosevelt. Developments in Maryland are watched with particular interest because often in its history it has been ranked with doubtful states in presidential contests.

Tydings' announcement of support and his prediction of the president's re-election came a few hours after Mr. Roosevelt signed petitions to enter the Maryland, Massachusetts, and Ohio primaries.

Addressing the state convention of Young Democrats at Baltimore, Maryland's senior senator said some administration policies were necessitated by the action of the previous Republican regime. He expressed belief the president should "substantially modify a number of the emergency activities," and added that there were indications the president "favors such a course."

"We can best serve Maryland and the country," he declared, "by participating in the Democratic party council . . . and by diligently working throughout the campaign for the re-election of President Roosevelt and a Democratic congress."

Speaking from the same platform Secretary Hill thrust at "partisan criticism" of New Deal recovery efforts. He declared the administration had preserved "domestic tranquility" in the face of an unprecedented economic crisis.

Republican leaders from fifteen states in the farm belt met at Chicago to plan strategy for the forthcoming campaign. They predicted victory for the G.O.P. if criticism is directed against the president himself, "not at the New Deal, not at the brain trust." They held the president was responsible for his subordinates.

Horner, Bundesen Pushing Campaigns

Lawrenceville, Ill.—(P)—Blame for defeat of the permanent registration bill in the state Senate was laid on the shoulders of Governor Edward J. Kelly of Chicago by Governor Henry Horner in a political address here last night.

The governor, campaigning for the Democratic re-nomination, also charged John Stelle, retiring state treasurer and a candidate for nomination as lieutenant governor on a slate supported by Kelly, with being "untrue" to his friends.

At Murphysboro, Stelle charged that Governor Horner aspired to "the dictatorship of the Democratic party in Illinois."

Dr. Herman N. Bundesen, candidate for governor on the Kelly slate, pledged himself to a tax reduction program if nominated and elected, and promised his administration of state institutions would be "scandal-free."

PLEAD SELF DEFENSE
East St. Louis, Ill.—(P)—Attorneys indicated a self defense plea would be offered in the case of Mrs. Peggy Nash, on trial here today in the slaying of her husband, William Nash.

Police said Mrs. Nash admitted firing four shots at her husband last Nov. 11 after four years of drunkenness on his part and continuous financial trouble. Jury selection in the trial began late yesterday.

Lewis Walker of Franklin called in the city yesterday.

Harold Perbix of Chapin was a business visitor in the city yesterday.

Illinois Assembly Adjourns

Closing Hours Witness Bitter Clash Between Horner and Kelly-Nash Factions; Consider Several Measures.

CALL IN ABSENTEES

By CURTIS R. HAY (Associated Press Staff Writer) Springfield, Ill.—(AP)—Kelly-Nash Democrats and supporters of Governor Horner staged one of their bitterest legislative battles today as the first and third special sessions adjourned sine die.

The senate finished its work at 2.20 a. m., more than an hour of the after-midnight meeting being consumed in quorum calls and other parliamentary maneuverings.

Senator W. H. Hickman, Paris Democrat, asked the senate to concur in a house amendment to the Hickman-Lantz-Finn bill for a mandatory pauper tax levy in Chicago and downstate.

The Cook county legislators objected, saying that the question be deferred until the second special session reconvenes on April 21, a week after the primary, to take up other relief problems.

When Hickman refused to let the issue drop, Harold G. Ward, Chicago Democratic leader, raised the question of a quorum. Several Chicagoans left the chamber, a roll call showed that a quorum was not present and Lieut. Gov. Thomas F. Donovan then declared the second session in adjournment.

Hickman retaliated when Chicago bills were called up in the third session, calling for a quorum on a bill to extend car lines through a Chicago park.

The absent Chicagoans were summoned back and the rest of the pending bills were passed after further bickering.

Part of the argument was about "ghost votes" cast by senators who had received unanimous consent to be recorded on specific bills before they left Springfield earlier in the day.

At one time Donovan ordered the sergeant-at-arms to round up absentee senators in the city.

"We're doing a childish thing here," said Thomas P. Gunning, Princeton Republican, in one of a series of conciliatory speeches. "If the people of Illinois could see this, they'd discharge all of us."

Bills sent to the governor by the senate.

Your Church Is as Necessary to Your City as Your Homes or Your Schools

You probably have never considered your church as being equal in importance to you and your city as is your home or your schools. You have more than likely looked upon your church as a public building where in people meet to worship and pray.

Your church is more important than that! Your church is your city's inspiration; it is the moral guide of your fellowman. Your church is the foundation of civilization and the perpetuation of Christian brotherhood. It is the refuge for the oppressed, it is the haven of the distressed. It is the House of God where all of any race or creed may enter and receive divine strength and sustenance.

Your church maintains the principles of Christ—the brotherhood of man. It is the sanctity of your home—the builder of character in your loved ones.

Every important ceremony, function, or deed in your life is instigated "by the Grace of God." Baptism, Marriage, Oath of Office, Celebration, and even at the time of Death, is your church called in service.

Use your Church—Patronize it. Support its principles of decency and Christianity—principles with which you are in full accord. Don't wait for trial and trouble to awaken your consciousness of your need for Church. Be a man and use in Happiness what you need in distress.

Come to Church Sunday—and Regularly!

Wheat Prices Are
Two Cents Lower

By John P. Boughan.

Chicago, March 6.—(P)—Tumbles of almost 2 cents a bushel in wheat prices today resulted largely from bearish estimates of farm stocks and reports of little winter killing.

Active selling that apparently started from speculative sources revealed that wheat was without aggressive buying support despite persistent dry weather southwest and notwithstanding Liverpool market firmness. Premiums for domestic high protein wheat both southwest and northwest fell sharply, a circumstance ascribed in large degree to prevailing uncertainty in regard to proposed processing taxes.

Wheat closed weak at virtually the day's bottom level, 3-11 under yesterday's finish, May 96 1/2, July 86 1/2, corn 4-1 down, May 60 1/2, oats 4-1 off, and provisions varying from 17 cents setback to 7 cents gain.

Stop-loss selling broke out first in May wheat, but soon afterward the new crop deliveries too showed decided weakness. In addition to reports indicating that winter killing of wheat appeared small, advices were stressed that spring wheat areas have had sufficient moisture to permit rapid germination when seeding gets under way. Besides in some quarters, monthly unofficial crop summaries, the first of the season, were interpreted as bearish, the estimates of domestic winter wheat yield being slightly larger than expected.

New export purchases of Canadian wheat were estimated at as high as 1,000,000 bushels, but the effect was more or less counterbalanced by further trade gossip that Canada's crop has been under-estimated. Unofficial estimates of domestic farm reserve stocks of wheat ranged from 118,000,000 to 125,000,000 bushels compared to 107,000,000 a year ago. Forecasts of winter wheat yield varied from 500,000,000 to 565,000,000 bushels, against last year's crop of 433,000,000.

Flood Puts Houseboats 'On Ice'

The flood is over, but the mischief lingers on; here, high and dry on a bank of the Allegheny in downtown Pittsburgh are several houseboats, the ice-carpeted ground about them reminiscent of the recent huge break-up. While a derrick clears ice from the railroad right-of-way, rivermen are scratching their chins, wondering whether they ought to slide their houseboats back into the water and risk another of King Winter's practical jokes.

TAKE U. OF I. COURSE

Arthur Layton, Jerry Langdon, Carl Longenbaugh and William Hart have been in Champaign this week taking a course at the University of Illinois in line with their respective positions at local state institutions.

The Bonds estate in Lomita Park, Calif., has the only replica of the famous Sun Palace of the ancient Mayans. Bees on this estate make honey from lotus blossoms.

Soviet 'Men in White' on Guard

Not Ku Kluxers on the prowl, nor little White Riding Hoods and the bad wolf, but burly Soviet border guards and their service dog are pictured above, as sharp human and canine eyes carefully scan the horizon for signs of the enemy. In frigid border zones of Soviet Russia, army scouts prefer those hooded white gowns, which render them virtually invisible in the snow.

Socony-Vacuum
Brings Mobilgas
To Jacksonville

Through the purchase of a bulk plant here, Socony-Vacuum Oil Company, Inc., through its Lubrite Division office in St. Louis, introduces into Jacksonville today for the first time, Mobilgas, the gasoline which is credited with being the largest selling gasoline in America.

Seven prominent service stations have just completed the task of changing their stations over to Mobilgas and Mobiloil, both of which are well known to motorists all over the country.

Use Attractive Signs

Exceptional attention has been called to these new stations because of the unique trade-mark which appears on the swinging shield signs in front of the stations. A large Flying Red Horse is shown on a white background, giving much of the atmosphere which has long been associated with tavern and inn signs of an earlier day.

Pegasus Is Trade Mark

Mr. Roy Dill, Socony-Vacuum's advertising manager at St. Louis, explains that the Flying Red Horse is the same famous Pegasus of ancient Greek mythology who traveled with the speed of light and whose power and smoothness of travel was a thing of marvel even to the gods who rode this winged horse.

"Of course, we like to think that the Flying Red Horse is a true symbol of the quality of Mobilgas," states Mr. Dill. "We know that people like the pleasing Pegasus design because we have distributed several million red horses in the form of license plate emblems."

Socony-Vacuum sales officials have a very strict policy in the selection of dealers to handle Mobilgas due to the fact that Mobilgas dealers have a national reputation for what is known as "Friendly Service."

According to the Company, Friendly Service is not merely the usual free services of windshield cleaning, radiator filling, etc., but the result of a definite pledge on the part of the Mobilgas dealer to take a personal interest in each customer's car and to the best of his ability, see that it is in safe operating condition at all times and keep it running better for a longer time.

The local Mobilgas dealers who are listed below are definitely pledged to Friendly Service:

Withee Super Service Station, 235 N. Main.
Lynn and Doolin, W. College and West streets.
Davidson and Cunningham, S. Main and Vandallia road.
Herrin and Ashby, Morton and Hardin streets.
J. Winstead Market, 950 N. Main street.

Brown and Sons, Murrayville.
R. S. Leib Garage, Rigdon.

The Flying Red Horse Tavern

Time in every Friday night at 7 o'clock on the "Flying Red Horse Tavern" program, over the Columbia network—WBBM, KMOX, etc. This program is sponsored by Mobilgas and Mobiloil, thru its 75,000 independent dealers throughout the country. It has catchy music by a famous orchestra and some of the most celebrated stage and screen stars, plenty of good humor. A half hour chuck full of fine entertainment. Be sure to tune in on Friday's. You will like it.

Hog Prices Are
25 Cents Lower

Chicago, March 6.—(P)—Hog prices struck an uneven downturn today, heavy butchers selling steady to 25 cents lower and lights weak to a dime lower. Packing sows, however, were fully steady. The top was $10.55, a decline of 10 cents.

The weak undertone was due largely to a distinct narrowing of local orders, the slaughter industry awaiting a more reliable dressed pork outlet at yesterday's cent a pound advance on light loins. Receipts were only 9,000. The average cost yesterday was $9.97 and the average weight was boosted to 257 pounds.

A limited supply of fed steers good enough to fill orders for eastern butchers was ample for scant trade requirements and buyers took advance of the slim demand to bid 25 cents lower. No strictly choice offerings were available and the bulk of better grade steers were taken off the market because of the lower bids. A parting sold for $10.75 and a few went over the scales for $8.25 and $9. The heifer market was fully steady.

Working with a short run of 6,000 sheep and lambs, salesmen were able to reestablish the $10 quotation for slaughter lambs and city butchers secured a deck of highly finished 89 pounders at $10.15. The general fat lamb trade was mostly 10 to 15 cents higher.

CASH GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, March 6.—(P)—Cash wheat was 1 to 1 1/2 cents lower today. Receipts were 4 cars; shipping sales 48,000 bushels.

Corn was 1 to 2 cents lower. Receipts were 123 cars; shipping sales 46,000 bushels; booked to arrive 3,000 bushels.

Oats were 1 to 1 1/2 cents lower. Receipts were 71 cars; shipping sales 25,000 bushels.

School House Burns Near Bluff Springs

Nine Pupils of Cass County Escape from Building; Loss Totals $2,500

Beardstown—One of Cass county's original school buildings was destroyed when Red Oak school, 4 miles northeast of Bluff Springs, burned to the ground.

William Baldwin, teacher, discovered the roof was ablaze and aided the nine school children in collecting books, hats and coats, and escaping from the burning building. One passerby was blocked by the sweeping fire which destroyed the building in less than half an hour, but the pupils escaped through the south door. Although Mr. Baldwin returned to the building once to save geographic globes and a map, none of the school library, rated as one of the best in the county, could be saved.

The one room frame school was built in 1892 on land which was cleared for that purpose. Timber for the building was donated by residents in that district.

Damage was estimated at $2,500. A conservative estimate of $2,000 was placed on the building and $500 on equipment including two large book-cases of newly purchased world books and much supplementary material. The school was only partially insured.

Tax Books Delivered to Sheriff Friday; Rate in Jacksonville Up to $4.15

Collections of the 1935 taxes in Morgan county began yesterday at the office of Sheriff Kenneth Woods, ex-officio tax collector, with the rate considerably higher in Jacksonville than in the year previous. Jacksonville taxpayers will pay $4.15 per hundred dollars assessed valuation compared to $3.52 1/2 last year, the increase being due largely to addition of blind relief, mothers pension and pauper relief. The school rate, also, is up this year in the city.

The assessed valuation in the county rose slightly, being $31,539,149 in 1935 compared to $31,539,149 in 1934.

Work of extending the taxes was finished at the office of County Clerk Brockhouse Thursday night, and the books were turned over to the collector yesterday morning. The first taxpayer who paid in person was William L. Hopper of Sinclair, and Henry E. Nasby was the second customer at the tax counter.

Comparative figures show the jump in the Jacksonville tax rate. Following are figures for the past two years, showing the additions that figured largely in increasing the rate:

1934	1935
County	35
County highway	125
T. B. Sanatorium	07
County Bond	04
Blind relief	05
Mothers' pension	04
Pauper relief	163

Striving to drive home the necessity for traffic safety, the Journal and Courier will present each publication day with the exception of Sunday and Monday, a picture showing a traffic situation. There may be one, two or three things wrong in the picture. Some of the pictures may not show anything wrong.

The contest is open to everyone except employees of the Journal and Courier and their immediate families. It is not necessary to be a subscriber to the Journal or Courier to compete. Blind relief, mothers pension and pauper relief, the Journal and Courier may be inspected at this office or at the Public Library, where they are on file.

It is important to observe the rule which requires that all drawings be held until the complete set of 50 pictures have been published. As soon as the complete set has been assembled and answered, send the answers to the "Traffic Safety Game Editor" in care of these newspapers.

CRUISE TO NOWHERE

BEGIN HERE TODAY

JANE WESTON felt her drama have come true when she sets out on a three week ocean cruise, accepted in payment for the salary due her when the magazine for which she worked as typist suspended publication.

On board the ship, she meets handsome DIRK STROM, expert ski jumper, as penpal as her self. The two are much attracted to each other.

Understanding comes between them. Jane is flattered by the attention of DIRK. LENA, a mischievous, understanding comes between them. Jane is flattered by the attention of DIRK. LENA, a mischievous, understanding comes between them.

Others among the passengers are SNOWSHOES, a detective; MADAME DOREMUS, wealthy and eccentric; DUTCH LENZ, a millionaire; MANNIE JACKSON, blackmailer; KEN MARTIN, a man; and LINDA BAYLIS, floor show entertainer.

SNOWSHOES persuades Nora Lane to turn the Kokoiro diamond over to the partner. They go to her stateroom to get it and find MANNIE JACKSON, blackmailer, with a bullet wound.

SNOWSHOES takes charge of the investigation. The passengers are not aware of the murder, though they know of the theft.

Leaving Nassau behind, a storm comes up that threatens to become a hurricane. SNOWSHOES and passengers get their life belts. MADAME DOREMUS reports that MANNIE JACKSON is missing.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XXI

THE steady, dull roar of the wind endured outside the ship's bar, but most of those inside didn't pay it any heed. The tension had been too much for some of them; they were as high as the winds. Men who had given up their life belts to women and children sat about the small tables with scotch at their elbows and told lugubrious tales about shipwrecks at sea.

"The ship hit the reef, and cracked up like a shell. The lagoon was infested with tiger sharks."

Terre Haute, Indiana, and Macon, Illinois, will provide opposition for the Jacksonville High School girls' debate teams in the first round of the MacMurray College Invitational Tournament this morning. The Crimson team will meet the Terre Haute negative team. Barbara Butler and Betty Trabe are upholding the negative side of the issue for Jacksonville. Other rounds will follow during the day, the finals probably being held shortly before the supper hour. The tourney is so arranged that a single team wins a place instead of a school. Jacksonville High School has received a second place in each of the last two meets.

The question being debated is the National High School Forensic League subject, "Resolved: that the several states should enact legislation providing for a complete system of medical care available to all citizens at public expense."

Of the debaters which Coach Harold Gibson has selected to represent the home town, Mary Butler has had two years of varsity experience and Jane Dunlap one. Betty Trabe has also had quite a bit of experience, being a member of last year's second team. Barbara Butler is debating for her first year, but has already won a place for herself on the regular varsity. Mary Butler is a senior, while Barbara Butler, Miss Dunlap and Miss Trabe are all juniors.
